SALAD DRYER BAG. It's time to retire your salad spinner. Silvermark's microfiber salad dryer bag is a great way to store your fresh greens. Simply wash your produce, put it in the bag, and then in your refrigerator. The microfiber material absorbs excess water while protecting the contents from its surroundings better than anything else we've tried. Your greens will stay as crisp as the day you bought it for longer than conventional storage methods.

Available at Bed Bath & Beyond, Crate & Barrel, Sur La Table, Williams-Sonoma, Kitchen Collection, Linens-N-Things, Le Gourmet Chef, JC Penney, and other select retailers nationwide as well as Silvermark's website www.silvermk.com.

TRUFFLE GATHERERS SAUCE AND TRUFFLE SALT. FungusAmongUs' delicious earthy mix of truffles, olives, capers, and anchovies is wonderful on crackers, a baguette, or as a topper for chicken or pasta — in fact, it's so good it would make shoe leather taste great! It just won a Gold Medal at the Fancy Food Show in New York. We also love their truffle salt. It's full of wonderful aromas and less expensive than truffle oil.

Available at Whole Foods or find them online at www.fungusamongus.com.

PURE GOAT MILK BUTTER. You may think butter is butter, but this one is light and delicate and utterly delicious. We discovered it at Willy Street Co-op and fell in love with the taste. If you are eating healthfully and limiting butter and fat, finding a butter this good means you can use a bit less and still get that wonderful burst of flavor only butter provides. Mt. Sterling is a member-owned and operated cooperative with over forty family operated goat dairy farm members in Wisconsin, Iowa, and Minnesota.

Available at Williamson Street Co-op and direct from Mt. Sterling at www.buygoatcheese.com.

GOLDEN MAPLE ROOT BEER. To get straight to the point, Golden Maple Root Beer from Lakefront Brewery, Inc. in Milwaukee is one of the best you will ever taste. Golden Maple has a rich, classic root beer taste with, thanks to the addition of pure Wisconsin maple syrup, a surprisingly refreshing maple finish. This is the kind of root beer that should be savored slowly one sip at a time. Lakefront Brewery distributes their one-of-a-kind root beer at select retailers throughout the Midwest.

YELLINGBO EXTRA VIRGIN OLIVE OIL. Surprisingly, Three Bridges Olive Grove isn't nestled on a sun-drenched slope in Southern Italy. This family-owned estate calls Yellingbo, Victoria, Australia, home. They produce two olive oils, Yellingbo Gold Extra Virgin Olive Oil and Yellingbo Gold Limited Release Unfiltered Extra Virgin Olive Oil. Both are made from hand-picked, cold-pressed olives and are bottled in small quantities right on the estate. Olive oil lovers owe it to themselves to give Yellingbo EVOO a try.

Available at Fraboni's, www.Zingermans.com, Straub's Markets, and Whole Foods.

PIE KEEPER. Sometimes you get what you pay for — but sometimes there's a great inexpensive tool that works like a charm, that's so simple you think "Why didn't someone come up with that before?" This tiny little hinged device from Kitchen Collection is one of those great kitchen gadgets that we just love. It opens up and slips into any pie to hold the filling in place after you've cut the pie. No more blueberries running out of the crust, no more sagging apples slip-sliding away from their slice into the empty space.

Available at Kitchen Collection Stores at Johnson Creek Factory Outlets, Prime Outlets in Huntley, Illinois, and Oshkosh, Wisconsin, and the Tanger Outlet in Baraboo, Wisconsin.
